Bangkok, Thailand – On January 24, 2007, Radio Company.net Co., Ltd., the Founder of RadioBangkok.net, the largest English language internet radio station in Asia, led by Bill Hammerton Executive Producer, in association with Bangkok Base, moved to a new corporate HQ at Fenix Tower on the corner of Sukhumvit 31, right in the heart of Bangkok.

After only a few months of its newly designed website followed by its recent launch, RadioBangkok.net is constantly growing with another great move, joining forces with Bangkok Base at Fenix Tower. Up on the 10th floor is where RadioBangkok.net calls its new home. Looking simple, modern and stylish is integrated in its new head office, it's what Fenix Tower is all about.

Just right there, on the corner of Sukhumvit Soi 31, Fenix Tower is one of Bangkok's brand new grade 'A' commercial buildings designed to offer a business environment that suits Bangkok's modern lifestyle. Fenix Tower's interior design offers a totally different look in style with an amazing view of Bangkok. The tower really offers it all from leading international retail brands, fitness club, to fine dining.

The building is located within a short walking distance from the BTS Phrom Phong Station and the Emporium. Visitors and companies can feel secure while in the building which provides such secure international standards in safety and security. The building gives supreme comfort with variable air volume in each office, high speed lifts and separate service lifts, as well as ample car parking.

RadioBangkok.net knows its clients and visitors will feel even more comfortable, when they are welcomed and greeted by two full-time receptionists at the modern and spacious reception.

"With its smart, cool and sexy look and design of the tower, blended with the interior and décor that Bangkok Base offers, we feel this is 'it', our new head office, and we have arrived," said Bill Hammerton.

In conclusion, RadioBangkok.net and its team welcomes you at anytime to visit its new HQ at Fenix Tower, just stopping by to say hi... they are happy to see you.

"RadioBangkok.net's new Bangkok base is at Bangkok Base, only at Fenix Tower." – From the whole team of RadioBangkok.net.
